

TEXAS MOB ROASTS
A COLORED FIENDA HORRIBLE CRIME WAS QUICKLY AVENGED.

Tenry Hillard, who Had Criminally Assaulted and Murdered the Young Wife of a Farmer, Suffers For His Offense at Tyler, Texas—He Had Confessed His Guilt.

Kilgore, Texas, Oct. 30.—Two tragedies, which lack no element of lurid, gory horror, have convulsed the people of the neighborhood. The foulest offense that could be committed against womanhood has been avenged by an outraged community that has not hesitated to punish one crime by committing another in retaliation. The horribly mutilated corpse of Mrs. Bell lies at her home. In the center of the public square of Tyler, near here, a heap of ashes and calcined bones marks the place where Henry Hilliard, a negro, was tied, where his screams of agony were smothered with smoke, and where, his life having been taken by the flames, his body was incinerated before the gaze of 7,000 pairs of vengeful eyes.

Mrs. Bell, who had been visiting her mother, a short distance from home, was on her return Monday evening, and was met by the negro. What occurred was later told by the negro himself and by the evidence given by the dead body of the lady. The ground showed that she had struggled for her honor, and the condition of the body told of a cruelty that has only been equaled by "Jack, the Ripper."

A posse was quickly organized, led by Deputy Smith of Tyler. With lanterns in hand and aided by a hound, the posse tracked the negro to within four miles of this place, and found him, at 4 o'clock in the morning, fast asleep in a cotton pen.

The negro offered no resistance. Soon after the officers had him handcuffed, a mob of some 200 men, heavily armed, arrived on the scene and demanded the immediate surrender of the prisoner, which was readily given. The mob then left for the scene of the murder, where they arrived in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The crowd continued to gather at the scene of the horrible crime until nearly two thousand citizens of Tyler and vicinity were there. A few moments before the fiend was taken to the place a meeting was held and a committee was appointed to investigate his identity. Witnesses were summoned and closely interrogated. The result was a thorough investigation. In a few moments an officer approached from over the hill, followed by 300 armed men. When near the scene the officers were overpowered and disarmed, and the negro was taken before the committee. He made a full confession.

After his confession a vote was taken as to the mode of punishment. It was unanimously agreed to burn him, and it was agreed that he should suffer the penalty in the public square. The line of march was taken up toward Tyler, and at 4 o'clock the head of the line entered the main plaza, where no less than 7,000 people were assembled.

Large crowds of ladies and children were congregated on the awnings surrounding the public plaza. Wagons, carriages, trees, and buildings were converted into grand stands and were thronged at 4:30 o'clock.

A scaffold was erected in the center of the square. Wagons laden with kindling wood, coal oil and straw were driven to the scene and the funeral pyre was placed in position. The negro was then given an opportunity to speak, but his words were inaudible, but when he offered up his last prayer his words could be heard for several blocks. He was then lashed to the iron rail that extended through the pyre.

Mr. Bell, the husband of the murdered woman, applied the match and the flames shot upward, enveloping the negro in sheets of fire. He begged for mercy.

It was decided to burn him at once, and as fast as the wood thrown around him was consumed it was quickly replenished. From the time the match was applied until he was incinerated was exactly fifty minutes.

The International and Great Northern south-bound train was crowded with people from the towns north. Hundreds of negroes witnessed the execution and representative negroes, it is said, expressed their indorsement of the punishment. The officers were powerless, but his message was too late. All business houses and factories closed and the big Cotton Belt shops were deserted.

Want a Stricter Government.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 30.—At the national meeting of the Free Mission Church of America in this city Professor Princell of Minneapolis, one of the foremost men in the church, created much commotion by rising and announcing that he had decided to withdraw from the body on account of the lax discipline and government of the church. The announcement was like a bombshell and the conference finally agreed on a form of government more centralized and powerful, giving the church control over those who represent it as pastors.

Operations in Cuba Suspended.

Madrid, Oct. 30.—Captain General Martinez de Campos has decided to suspend further military operations in Eastern Cuba while the rains last.

DENOUNCED MOB VIOLENCE.

Strong Words Used by a Minister at the Funeral of Christian Matz.

Tiffin, O., Oct. 30.—The visible effects of the attack on the county jail Sunday morning are fast being effaced. Of the troops protecting the buildings only the local companies remain, the companies from Clyde and Kenton having been ordered home. The funerals of the men killed by the sheriff's guard occurred yesterday, but no excitement ensued. The obsequies of Christian Matz were held in the German Lutheran church at 10 o'clock and were very largely attended. The sermon was preached by Rev. C. F. Fleck, who eulogized the young man prior to his participation in the riot Sunday morning, which action he condemned in unmistakable language. He told what a curse mob law is and what would be the effect on the country were it to be tolerated.

Unless something unforeseen happens tonight the remaining troops will be withdrawn today. The state will have to stand an expense of $3,000 on account of the service of the military. The special grand jury appointed to consider the case of Lee Martin, alias Miller, the murderer of Marshal Schultz, and the cause of the outbreak, convened yesterday, and after a few hours' deliberation found an indictment of murder in the first degree. The jury was charged by Judge Melhorn to pass upon the case of the rioters, and it adjourned to Nov. 7 for that purpose.

American Minister to Retire.

Berne, Oct. 30.—The Hon. James O. Broadhead, United States minister to Switzerland, will present to President Frey his letters of recall on Thursday. Washington, Oct. 30.—Minister Broadhead's retirement from his post is understood to be entirely voluntary. His resignation was tendered to the president about six weeks ago. The minister is advanced in years, and it is due to a desire to first obtain a rest and then be able in the future to give his attention to private affairs that he retires from his diplomatic duties.

Trial of Spring Valley Rioters.

Princeton, Ill., Oct. 30.—The adjourned session of the Circuit Court is now in progress, and efforts are being made to procure a jury to try the cause of the people vs. John Lauer, Jean Brault, John Quimby, Joe Lenore, Joe Schneider, Louis Bozetti, Dominic Barteno, John Bartolo, Peter Marietto, John Rochie, Raymon Jordin, and John Tista and John Budvit, charged with rioting at Spring Valley August 4 last. Three venirees have been exhausted and yesterday the fourth was called for. One hundred men have been examined and ten have been accepted.

Methodist Foreign Missions.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 30.—Yesterday's session of the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Woman's Foreign Missionary Society opened with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. Trigg of Minneapolis. The report of the German work of the society of the United States was presented by Miss Dryer of Chicago, who is secretary of that branch. The report shows that there are 212 German organizations of the society in the United States, of 1,322 members.

Seize American Schooners.

North Sydney, C. B., Oct. 30.—The American fishing schooners David Sherman, Chut, master, and Lewis H. Giles, McKean, master, have been seized by Commodore Spail of the Canadian cruiser Acadia. It is reported that the former was purchasing supplies under license and selling them to the Lewis H. Giles, which had no license, thereby violating the fishery laws of Canada. The Giles was seized here two years ago for fishing within the three-mile limit.

Big Clothing House Falls.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 30.—Isador H. Sultzbach, an extensive dealer in clothing, made an assignment yesterday to Simon Bacarach, of the clothing manufacturing firm of A. Bacarach & Co. The assets will amount to about $200,000, and the assignee's attorney says the liabilities will probably exceed that sum. Mr. Sultzbach at one time did a very large business, but he is said to have recently stated that he lost $250,000 in the last two years.

Hotel Guests Escape from Fire.

Springfield, O., Oct. 30.—The Lagonda hotel caught fire just after midnight last night. The guests escaped. The Western Union telegraph office, clothing, hat and drug stores were burned out. The loss is $200,000. The hotel is a complete wreck. It is owned by John Bookwalter. Dayton was appealed to for aid, which was immediately sent.

Armenians and Turks Fight.

Constantinople, Oct. 30.—The Turkish troops and the Armenians have been fighting for three days near Marash. No details of the disturbance have been received here. A number of Angora railway officials, including some German and British subjects, have been captured by brigands at Ilghun.

After a Defaulting Treasurer.

San Francisco, Oct. 30.—A Tacoma dispatch says that ex-City Treasurer Boggs, who held office from 1890 to 1894, is an embezzler to the extent of $109,000 and that the sheriff is on the road to Jacksonville, Ore., to arrest him.

HOLMES WEARS OUT
UNDER THE STRAINTHE MULTI-MURDERER HAS RECALLED HIS LAWYERS.

His Counsel are Readmitted to the Case at His Request as he Could Not Attend so it Himself—The Evidence Taken Yesterday Proved His Intimacy With Pitzel.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 30.—H. H. Holmes dismissed his counsel Monday and began to try his own case because the court refused to grant the plea made by them for a continuance. They left the court in spite of Judge Arnold's threat to disbar them. Last night, after fighting single-handed against the tremendous machinery of the commonwealth and the apparently complete chain of evidence which has been forged around him, he sent for his lawyers, Messrs. Shoemaker and Rotan. Then he told the court what he had done, and a reluctant consent to their continuing with the defense was given.

The big work of the trial—taking testimony—was begun yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and with the exception of brief intermissions at lunch and supper time was continued until nearly 9 o'clock at night. It had been the intention of the court to sit until 10, but the absence of a witness hindered this, and an adjournment was taken. The star witnesses of the trial—Mrs. Pitzel, Detective Geyer, Agent Perry of the swindled insurance company, and the prisoner himself—yet remain to be heard, as also nearly two score of others.

Holmes made a plea asking the court to hold but two sessions a day. In plaintive tones he said that his physical condition was such that he felt unable to continue his cross-examination of the witnesses, and, besides, he was subject to sick headaches. Judge Arnold insisted, however, on holding an extra session last night, at least, and said next day could be attended to when it came. Jeanette Pitzel ("Dessa"), the daughter of the dead man, was the first witness called. She was called merely to identify several large crayons of her father. Eugene Smith, who found Pitzel's body in the Callowhill street house on Sept. 4, 1894, then told a detailed story of his discovery. The witness drew a packet of papers from his pocket, but Holmes objected to his referring to them unless they were in his own hand-writing. Smith admitted that the papers had been "prepared," and the court sustained the objection.

Holmes' intimacy with Pitzel was thoroughly proved by this witness. John F. Hughes, furniture salesman, had sold a bill of goods to Pitzel Aug. 17, 1894. Holmes accompanied him. The furniture was sent to 1316 Callowhill street, Walter W. Shedaker, real estate agent, rented the house to Pitzel on Aug. 18, 1894. An adjournment was taken at 8:50 until 10 a. m. to-day.

Large Increase in Mortgages.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 30.—The annual report of Canada's financial department for the year 1894, just issued, shows a great increase in the quantity of real estate mortgaged and in total loans. The value of the real estate mortgaged is $115,800,000, compared with $110,918,000 in 1893, an increase of nearly $5,000,000. Total loans in 1894 are $121,600,000, as against $115,346,000 in 1893, an increase of over $6,000,000. These figures show that never in its history has Canadian land been so heavily mortgaged. Since 1878 the increase in total loans has been over 350 per cent.

Gov. Beveridge Dying.

Sandwich, Ill., Oct. 30.—Ex-Governor John L. Beveridge was very delirious until about midnight Monday, when, worn out by the great strain of the unnatural ravings of the past sixty-eight hours, he sank into a stupor, which lasted until nearly noon. The doctors had hoped that if he again awoke he would feel rested and more natural, but about noon the delirium came on again, and it is now the opinion of the doctors that with the present conditions of the heart and nerves it will be impossible for him to keep up the fight many hours longer.

Three Burned to Death.

Guerrero, Hidalgo, Mexico, Oct. 30.—It is reported that the auxiliary judge of Tecapa, obeying the mandate of some of the saints who appeared to him in a vision, ordered the burning of two women and a child, which order was carried into effect by fifteen persons who believed in the heavenly vision. All the parties comprised in the horrible affair have been arrested by order of the president of this municipality. Investigations are proceeding.

Bicycle Records Broken.

Columbus, O., Oct. 30.—A special to the "Journal" from Chillicothe, O., says: W. W. Windle, the bicyclist, broke three world's records here yesterday, which were held by Champion Johnson. He made a half-mile in 48 seconds flat—Johnson's record, 51 seconds. The quarter was made in 22 4-5 seconds, against Johnson's record of 23, and the third in 30 3-5 seconds, against Johnson's record of 32 2-5. Windle was paced by a quad.

Blaze at Waco, Texas.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 30.—The large two-story brick livery-stable of Douglas Herring was destroyed by fire last night. Seven horses and fifty carriages and wagons were burned. The loss is 70,000, with insurance of $12,000.

MISPLACED SWITCH
CAUSES A HORRORBAD SMASHUP ON THE MISSOURI
PACIFIC ROAD.

Two Engineers are Killed and Sixty Passengers Strangely Escape Death—Six Injured Beside Nine Killed—Carelessness of An Employee Was the Cause.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 30.—Two passenger trains collided on the Missouri Pacific road at 11:30 p. m. last night, on the outskirts of this city, near King's Highway. The dead: EUGENE CAMPRON, engineer. JOHN HARPER, engineer.

The injured: George True, fireman, will die. George Dunbar, fireman, will die. John Bayliss, passenger, collar bone broke, injured internally, will die. Patrick Taylor, passenger, skull fractured, injured internally, no hope for recovery.

Davis, passenger, an attorney of Webster Grove, Mo., severely injured. Bert Taylor, passenger, seriously injured.

Several other passengers were bruised and scratched, but, being able to move about, left the scene before their names could be learned. The fact that each train had an empty coach next to the engine and baggage car accounts for the number of casualties not being larger. There were fifty passengers on the west-bound and thirty on the incoming train. The disaster was caused through the carelessness of somebody who threw a switch at Grand avenue, causing the west-bound train to run upon the east-bound track. It is thought one of the roadmen threw the switch, expecting to place it in its normal position before leaving his work, but forgot it.

Iowa Christian Endeavors.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 30.—The annual convention of the Christian Endeavors of Iowa opened in this city yesterday and will continue for three days. Father Clark, originator of the order, is in the city, the honored guest of the convention. The day was spent in receiving the 1,500 delegates and locating them. There are now 574 societies in the state, with 17,344 active workers. A change in the constitution was adopted making the district presidents vice-presidents of the state organization. The declaration of principles of the Boston convention was formally adopted by the state convention. The junior order has 359 societies in the state with a membership of over 7,000. Of these 145 were organized last year.

Coal Miners Dissatisfied.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 30.—For some time there has been dissatisfaction among the local coal miners, and a demand of 40 cents per ton for mining has been made. It is claimed that some fifteen of the twenty-eight mines in this district have signified a willingness to pay the price if the others would, but the Starnes and Sangamon mines have refused. Yesterday several hundred miners went to see these two mines, and had an agreement with these men to come out. The report is that there will be a general strike in the district very soon.

Says Bimetallism Has Declined.

London, Oct. 30.—George Peel, secretary of the Gold Standard Defense association, in addressing the Bristol chamber of commerce, congratulated his hearers in the decline in the fortunes of bimetallism. This, he said, was largely due to the large output of gold from South Africa, which has practically settled the question. Neither China nor Japan, he asserted, wanted a conference on the silver question. If we undervalued our gold and overvalued our silver, the former would vanish to the far East.

Explosion at Calumet, Mich.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 30.—At 2 o'clock yesterday morning an explosion in Fifth street aroused half of the city. Lomist Brothers' fruit store was wrecked by the explosion, which was evidently caused by dynamite or black powder. Jacob and Charles Lomist have been arrested charged with attempting to destroy the building for the insurance of $1,000 carried on their stock.

England Looking for a War.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—The Novoe Vremya publishes a dispatch from Vladivostok saying that the British squadron of war ships in the waters of the far East has been concentrated at Fou-Chan, and adds: "Great Britain is zealously seeking a pretext for declaring war upon China, in order to counteract the successes of Russia and restore her shattered prestige in the Pacific."

Fire Destroys New York Timber.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Thousands of acres of valuable timber land have been destroyed during the last few days by forest fires. Several miles of Tonawanda swamp have been leveled to the ground, burning several bridges, fences, and some barns. Farmers have turned out in organized bands to fight the fires. In Livingston, Genesee, Wayne, and Seneca counties the reports of losses are the greatest.

Deny a Secret Treaty.

London, Oct. 30.—The Russian embassy announces that it has received an official telegram from St. Petersburg completely denying the stories from Hong Kong about the alleged secret treaty between China and Russia, by which the latter was to have been granted extraordinary concessions.

Woman's Board of Missions Meet.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 30.—The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the woman's board of missions of the interior opened here yesterday. Many women prominent in missionary work made addresses.

TO-DAY WILL SETTLE IT.

Big Prize Fight Likely to Take Place at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 30.—Corbett Brady, Joe Vendig, and Secretary Wheelock of the Florida Athletic Club are all under arrest here and in the hands of the local authorities, hence the attorney-general cannot get service on them now and take them from this county for trial, as he contemplated doing. Officers from this county, armed with warrants for Julian's and Fitzsimmons' arrest, are now doubtless with that twain somewhere in Texas plotting them toward Arkansas. As soon as the train crosses the line into Arkansas the warrants will be served upon them, and they will be prisoners of Garland county officers, and when Gov. Clarke's sheriff at Texarkana proceeds to serve his papers he will find that his warrants are not good. The governor has been tripped, and the only way remaining for him to stop the fight is that of military interference. It is not believed he will use the military. The only thing that will prevent the fight, it seems, is the failure of Fitzsimmons to get here and make satisfactory his stake money. It was given out tonight that the fight would not take place on Nov. 1, as previously announced, but on some day next week to be agreed upon and named after the arrival of Fitzsimmons and Julian. A large circus tent has been secured for the occasion, which can be put up in two hours and will accommodate 15,000 people. The feeling here is that the fight will surely take place if Fitzsimmons arrives, as the governor's only chance of preventing it is to prevent Fitzsimmons from getting here. To-day will settle the question.

Indiana Baptist Convention.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 30.—There are 300 delegates at the Baptist State convention which began a three days' session here yesterday. The convention is really four conventions, that of the Sunday School Association, the missions and the Baptist Young People's Union, besides the church convention. A committee has reported a new constitution which is to be passed upon today and which is intended to bring all these interests into one State organization. State Superintendent Ogle of Home Missions reported receipts in excess of expenditures and that forty churches were aided during the year by the board. The total receipts were $6,179. In addition the superintendent raised $2,300 for the payment of debts on churches.

Big Crowd at the Durrant Trial.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 30.—The close of the arguments for the defense in the trial of Theodore Durrant yesterday was marked by the greatest crowd that ever fought for admission to a murder trial in this city. The sheriff and his deputies were not able to control the mob, and a requisition was made on the chief of police for a squad of twenty men. One of the jurors arose and informed the court that he would never enter the room again if he were compelled to fight his way through such a crowd. Attorney Deuprey was so weak from the effects of his recent illness that he addressed the jury while seated.

Michigan Forest Fires.

Camden, Mich., Oct. 30.—Word reached here late yesterday afternoon that the forest fires which had been burning in the marshes and meadows near Montgomery, in the southern end of this county, had reached such dangerous proportions that the town was in great danger of being wiped out. The alarm over the situation has become so great that, with the high winds blowing, it is feared the fire cannot be kept from the town itself. The business men have closed their stores and gone to fight the fires, and every able-bodied man in the place has turned into a fireman.

Waiting on Salisbury.

London, Oct. 30.—The United States ambassador, Thomas F. Bayard, who has been visiting Sir John Pender, will return to town Thursday and will start for Scotland next week. He will probably be away from London during most of the month of November. The stories about Mr. Bayard delaying his departure owing to his expecting the Marquis of Salisbury's reply to the note of the United States regarding Venezuela are unfounded.

Indiana Synodical Societies.

Peru, Ind., Oct. 30.—One hundred and fifty women are here from all parts of the State in attendance at the thirteenth annual meeting of the Indiana Synodical societies of home missions, which is to be held for three days in the First Presbyterian Church. The Christian Endeavor synodical treasurer, Miss Agnes J. Cochran of Fort Wayne, reported receipts of $2,200 during the year ending September 13.

Six Killed in an Explosion.

London, Oct. 30.—An explosion, supposed to have been caused by escaping gas, wrecked a house, reducing it to atoms, on New Church court, Strand, last evening. Six persons were killed and six were injured in the collapse of the house. The building consisted of three floors, and its tenants were mostly Covent garden market porters.

Ward Is in Tegucigalpa.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 30.—A. K. Ward, the fugitive treasurer and manager of the Memphis Barrel and Heading Company, who took passage on the steamer Breakwater some ten days ago, is at present residing in Tegucigalpa, Spanish Honduras, with his wife, and within a few weeks will take possession of a large tract of land.

FIRE AT FOND DU LAC
RUINS A RESIDENCEFINE HOUSE BURNED AT A
LOSS OF $6000.

James Aldrich, the Owner, Was Sick Aged and the Shock, it is Feared Will Result Seriously With Him—Milwaukee Wants the Populist Convention—State News.

Fond du Lac, Oct. 30.—[Special]—The handsome residence of James Aldrich was burned with all its contents last night. Mr. Aldrich was sick aged and it is believed the shock will result seriously to him.

Milwaukee Wants Populist Convention Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 30.—Steps to secure the populist convention for Milwaukee were taken yesterday at a meeting of business men and leading populists held at the Hotel Pfister. A committee consisting of Mayor Koch, H. B. Wilkins and Robert Schilling was appointed to secure the sum of $5,000 to pay the expenses of the convention if it is held here. The committee appointed will be increased to 100. The leading business men will petition the populist committee to bring the convention to this city, and local populists believe this city will be chosen.

To Consider a Special Session.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 30.—Governor Upham has notified the special committee which was appointed at the last session of the legislature to draft an apportionment bill to meet in Madison November 1. Under the terms of the law the committee must place the bill in the hands of the governor by December 16. He will then consider the advisability of calling a special session of the legislature to act upon it. While some opposition exists to the convening of the legislature in extraordinary session, it is believed Governor Upham will issue the call.

Light Fall of Snow in Wisconsin.

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 30.—Light snow yesterday, while not sufficient to extinguish the forest fires, has deadened them and will prevent them spreading.

MEN ARE DISSATISFIED.

Employees of the Great Northern Railroad May Make Trouble.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 30.—The indications are that James J. Hill will be compelled to accede to the demands to be made upon him by the American Railway union or have visited upon the Great Northern railroad an extensive strike. There is now at Devil's Lake, N. D., a committee of eight, chosen from various lodges of the order, including one representative from this state, and together they are revising the schedules for submission to President Hill. The main ground for contention is that a low-paid man with a grievance is entitled to as much consideration as a high paid without a grievance. As further cause for complaint it is claimed that Mr. Hill, ever since the union won the great strike which came to an end May 18, 1894, has been systematically violating the agreement made at that time.

LOOK TO BOURGEOIS.

French Press Believes He Will Succeed Premier Ribot.

Paris, Oct. 30.—The newspapers express appreciation of the difficulties which are confronting President Faure as a result of the resignation of the Ribot ministry. Most of the newspapers' opinions of the circumstances point to the formation of a radical cabinet, headed by M. Bourgeois, whose last office was that of minister of justice in the former Ribot cabinet, in 1892, and who tried unsuccessfully to form a cabinet after the fall of the Dupuy ministry. Several newspapers, however, say they anticipate that a dissolution of parliament must occur "if the present state of anarchy continues."

The Palais Bourbon Consensus of Opinion.

opinion seems to favor a radical ministry, comprising among its members MM. Bourgeois, Cavaignac, Peytral, Doumer, Hanotaux and, perhaps, General Zurlinden and Admiral Benaud.

Burglars Get $1,000.

Findlay, O., Oct. 30.—The safe in the store of Uriah Sillik, at Van Lee, ten miles east of here, was blown open with dynamite Monday night and the sum of $1,000 was secured, one-half the money being in gold. The safe was blown to pieces and all the windows blown out of the building, yet none of the people of the village were disturbed by the noise.

Six Killed in an Explosion.

London, Oct. 30.—An explosion, supposed to have been caused by escaping gas, wrecked a house, reducing it to atoms, on New Church court, Strand, last evening. Six persons were killed and six were injured in the collapse of the house. The building consisted of three floors, and its tenants were mostly Covent garden market porters.

Ward Is in Tegucigalpa.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 30.—A. K. Ward, the fugitive treasurer and manager of the Memphis Barrel and Heading Company, who took passage on the steamer Breakwater some ten days ago, is at present residing in Tegucigalpa, Spanish Honduras, with his wife, and within a few weeks will take possession of a large tract of land.

STILT WALKER HERE ON HIS LONG TRIP

FRANK C. LOFTUS VISITS JANESVILLE LAST NIGHT.

His Journey Will Cover a Thousand Miles and He Expects to Make It in 53 Days Thereby Enriching Himself to the Extent of About $1500 in Cash.

Frank J. Loftus, the Green Bay man whose great mind evolved the scheme of winning fame and fortune by walking from that city to New Orleans on stilts, was in Janesville last night. He pegged into town from Fort Atkinson at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and pegged out again at 9 o'clock this morning bound for Rockford.

Mr. Loftus is taking his pleasure trip under the auspices of the New York Police Gazette, that great moral publication issued by the widely known Richard K. Fox, who originated the championship-belt-idea when pugilism consisted wholly of punching, many, many years ago.

Mr. Loftus left Green Bay on October 21. His stilts did not get broken in, and the first thing Loftus did, was to fall on his face and sprain his arm. This necessitated his staying in Depere all day at a great loss of sleep and seventeen miles of space. Tuesday he stumped out of Depere and has been going ever since.

The Time He Made.
That night found him in Appleton, a distance of twenty-five miles. Then he went from Appleton to Oshkosh, twenty-two miles; Oshkosh to Fond du Lac, twenty-three and one-half miles. All of this time his right arm was in a sling, but Loftus didn't give up. From Fond du Lac he journeyed to Waupun, twenty-one miles; from Waupun to Juneau, twenty-one and one-half miles; from Juneau to Watertown, nineteen miles; from Watertown to Fort Atkinson and from Fort Atkinson to Janesville.

Mr. Loftus walks on stilts that do not come quite to his knees. They are made of pine and are painted red, white and blue. He is twenty-two years old and weighs one hundred and forty-five pounds, but lost five pounds in weight between Janesville and Green Bay. He wears a black sweater with red letters sewed on the breast reading "Police Gazette," while on the back the inscription is "To New Orleans." His cap is labeled "Green Bay, Wis." He makes his living by selling photographs and accepting the contributions tendered him on the street.

"I live on the fat of the land," he told a Gazette reporter last night. "and there is nothing too rich for my blood, see?"

What He Will Get.
"No I am not doing this thing for fun. There's money in the snap," he remarked. "I will get $250 if I make a trip in 55 days. The total distance from Green Bay to New Orleans is 1120 miles. I am due in that town Dec. 14 at midnight and I reckon I can beat the limit by two days. My home is in Green Bay, my father being a contractor. This is the biggest stilt undertaking ever made. I am the only man in the business. I belong to the Green Bay athletic association and you can bet your sweet life I'm a walker on Walker's creek. The association got Fox to back me and I am not going to throw him down. I expect the trip will be worth about $1500 to me in the end."

Loftus staid at the Grand hotel while here and it didn't cost him a cent as Landlord Sweeney thought a man who traveled country roads on wooden pegs was earning his board. Loftus is apparently enjoying his tramp and explains his starting out by saying that "Green Bay is a dead sporty town."

"THE RAINMAKERS" VERY FUNNY
Company Was Handicapped, But Did Excellent Work Withal.

"The Rainmakers" was presented for the first time before a Janesville audience at the Myers Grand last night. Henry V. Donnelly was ill and unable to play, but his part was taken very acceptably by Charles J. Ross. Edward Girard is the same as ever, and caused a laugh every time he turned around. He was handicapped, also, by the absence of Donnelly, but the performance even with this drawback, was one of the best comedies that ever came to Janesville. The whole company was composed of masters of the art, and the audience laughed until many sides ached. The audience was a good sized one, thereby showing that the people appreciated Manager Stoddard's effort to get a good attraction.

TWO FINE LECTURE COURSES

The Fortnightly Club Secures the Services of University Professors

The people of Janesville are to be well provided with lectures this season. The Fortnightly club has provided two courses. Professors Turner and Scott of the state university, will each deliver a course. Professor Turner's course of six lectures will begin Monday evening, Nov. 18 and continue on each succeeding Monday evening until finished. Professor Scott's course will not begin until February. Nothing need be said to recommend Professor Scott's lectures to the Janesville public. Anyone not acquainted with his work and ability to handle his subject need but ask someone who attended his course of lectures last spring. He is certainly an able, pleasing and brilliant speaker.

Professor Turner is also a young man. He has more than a state reputation as a historian. He is likewise an entertaining, instructive speaker, and every one of the six lectures are upon subjects which must be of interest to anyone who knows or cares to know aught of their country's history.

There is one other feature of these lecture courses. They are not private enterprises or money-making schemes, but are strictly and in every sense of the word public matters.

The Fortnightly club, a committee of which have secured the lectures, is in itself wide open in its membership to the public. The prices to the courses are merely nominal—$.50 to both courses. The admission is intended simply to cover expenses, and whatever surplus there may be given to the public library fund. Their sole object is to benefit the public. The public should lend its liberal patronage.

Professor Turner's subjects are as follows:

- Nov. 11—"The Era of Hamilton."
- Nov. 18—"Jeffersonian Democracy."
- Nov. 25—"The Struggle for Neutrality."
- Dec. 2—"National Tendencies."
- Dec. 9—"The Missouri Compromise."
- Dec. 16—"Jacksonian Democracy."

BECKWITH'S HORSES SELL WELL
Good Animals Will Still Bring a Good Price, Even at Auction.

Senator Beckwith's string of horses which have spent most of the summer in training at the Janesville track, were sold at auction in Chicago, and all brought fairly good prices. Trainer Carnathan and Manager Hanson were on hand and were pleased with the prices the animals brought, considering the state of the horse market. Valencia, a trotter with a record of 2:20, brought the biggest price, $1,025; Brent Wells, 2:19, sold for $500, and Cornet, with a two year old record of 2:42, brought $275. These were the three highest prices obtained. Seventeen horses were sold in all.

How to Save Money and Health

Most people have some trouble with their health which they would like cured if it could be done easily and cheaply. Dr. Greene of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, makes the following offer: He gives you the privilege of consulting him, free of charge, through his great system of letter correspondence. Write him just how you feel and what symptoms trouble you. He will answer your letter explaining your case thoroughly, telling just what ails you and how to get strong and well. He gives the most careful attention to every letter, and makes his explanations so clear that you understand exactly what your complaint is. And for all this you pay nothing. You do not leave your home, and no doctor's fee to pay. The doctor makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and is having wonderful success. He is the discoverer of that celebrated medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. If you write him at once you will doubtless be cured.

A Bargain Place.

The Annex on River street, can truly be called the best place in the city for bargains. We can show more way down prices on clothing and shoes than any you ever saw before. Our counters are full of high-grade goods that through the buying of them cheap enables us to make prices within the reach of all. If we could itemize every article in the place we could show a list some yards long. A few articles and prices we talk on in our large ad today.

Worth Looking At

We have a shoe for men's winter wear, made of Oxide calf, high cut and absolutely water proof, that is the best thing for cold and wet wear we ever sold. We have handled the same shoe with low uppers but with this extra high top the Oxide calf lays over its former self. They will wear you several winters. A. Richardson Shoe Co.

Pants By the Hundred.

Is what we are able to show every man in search of them since we put in a line of Beaver Dam pants. Manufacturing goods made in Beaver Dam, Wis., in a mill where they never used an ounce of cotton in their goods and that is saying a good deal but everybody has heard of the B. D. A. For sale by F. H. Baack.

Rhine Stone Buttons.

We have just received about fifty styles of large fancy rhine stone buttons in gold, silver and other colors. They are the very latest productions in this line and are very popular for dress trimmings. Bort, Bailey & Co.

MACADAM IS GOOD AND VERY CHEAP

COST IS LESS THAN BLOCK PAVEMENT.

The Job Just Done on Franklin Street Composed 780 Square Yards Which Was Put Down at a Total Expense of $243—Commissioner Watson's Report.

The first trial of the steam roller and crusher has been satisfactory and the streets so fixed, cost less per foot than pavement and will be much more durable. Street Commissioner Watson who takes great pride in the job done on North Franklin street, has just made out his report of the cost of the construction of this road bed. The surface covered includes the block from Milwaukee street to Wall street, and is said to be a good sample of the work that can be done with the machine. The street encloses seven hundred and eighty square yards of macadam and after a careful estimate Commissioner Watson figures up the expense at $243 or about thirty-two cents a square yard. This estimate includes all the expense from the crushing of the stone at the quarry to the last trip of the roller. Experts consider the roads so made far superior to block pavement and it is much cheaper and more durable.

COMPLETE THE TELEPHONE LINE

Two Crews Are Now At Work Finishing Up the Circuit.

The long distance telephone line to New York via Milwaukee will soon be completed. Two crews started yesterday with instructions to rush work along. Foreman W. Thornton and crew are in the lead while the linemen in charge of Foreman Berry follow, their work being to string the wires. The poles are all set and they expect to finish the work in three weeks. They are now working near Whitewater. When the work is done, the Southern Wisconsin line will be finished.

ALL COPY MUST BE IN EARLY.

As Winter Days Shorten Up The Gazette Must Go to Press Earlier.

Hereafter all copy for display and reading advertisements must be in by noon in order to insure publication the same day. The Gazette is compelled to make this rule by the fact that as the days get shorter the paper has to go to press promptly at 4 o'clock. In order to do this all composition must be finished by 3 o'clock, and no deviation from this regulation can be made.

A Little Tartar.

Is that $2.50 ladies' special dongola shoe of ours as a seller. We are complimented frequently these days on getting up a shoe with the quality and style this shoe contains. Just as we said from the start it would grow continually in public favor and finally be recognized as a standard shoe. We are selling them every day to ladies and they never fail in the work for which they were intended. A. Richardson Shoe Co.

Warm Feet

In the winter time are half the heating of the entire body. When the feet are cold you feel it all over. We have a shoe that is warm, dry and at the same time stylish. The extension sole and needle toe make it a handsome shoe and the weight of leather, etc., make it perfect for cold weather. A. Richardson shoe Co.

Business Men's Association.

A special meeting of the Business Men's Association will be held on Thursday evening, Oct. 31 at 7:30 p. m. A representative or the Willard movement will be here and present the matter before the association. A full attendance is desired.

W. T. VANKIRK, president.

Outing Flannels

We have just placed on sale fifty pieces of heavy, soft outing flannels in both dark and light colors, to sell at the popular price, 6¢ cents per yard. These flannels are well worth 8 cents, and at this price, 6¢ cents, we expect to close them out in a week. Bort, Bailey & Co.

Odd Sizes.

Those odd sizes in Strong & Carroll's patent leather shoes that we formerly sold for $7 are great bargains at $3. We may be able to fit you in them. Better see them anyway, if you are going to buy patent leather shoes this season. A. Richardson Shoe Co.

Embroidery Silks.

We carry a full line of Brainard & Armstrong's and Hemmingway's Art silks. They are the two leading makes on the market today and the colors can be depended on. Bort, Bailey & Co.

Late Styles

The latest thing in enamel and patent leather we received a few days ago, and they are the prettiest men's shoes ever brought to the city. Richardson Shoe Co.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. C. D. Stevens.

WATER RUNNING AT MONTEREY.

Gates Were Raised Yesterday Afternoon For The First Time.

The gates were raised at the Monterey water power for the first time yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and owners of the cotton and woolen mills are more than pleased to know that the "measurement job" is now finished. For the past four weeks Civil Engineer Edward Ruger and Contractor John Watson have been at work, and in the meantime the cotton factory has been closed, while the Bower City Light and Power Company and the Rock River Woolen Company have been running by steam. The mills, however, expects to use steam for a while, for the water is too low at present to be of much use. The woolen mill is running day and night.

LOCAL NEWS IN A LINE.

The clothing and shoe sale is still on at the Annex.

The people are finding out that our store is the place to buy underwear Bort, Bailey & Co.

If in want of any kind of underwear, Bort, Bailey & Co. can furnish it, and the price will be right.

HAVE you seen our gent's 35 cent underwear? Other dealers as 50 cents for the same. Bort, Bailey & Co.

JUDGING from the number of cloaks we sold Saturday the ladies appreciate our line of exclusive styles. Bort, Bailey & Co.

100 pieces of Hemingways art embroidery with enough silk in each piece to finish it. You should ask to see them. Bort, Bailey & Co.

ALL this week Rosenfeld will sell you underwear, either shirts or drawers at 17½ cents. They are worth 50 a garment, but as we always do as we advertise, come and see us and see if you don't get as good or even better value than we tell you through the newspapers. Rosenfeld on the Bridge.

Gloves for 25 Cents a Pair.

A calfskin glove, wool and jersey cuff, the cuff was little damaged. Henry W. Price, the largest glove house in this part of the country, knew we could use them; sent us 10 dozen at such a low price by selling to the wearer at 25 cents, we make a nice profit and every purchaser goes away contented, remarking "how can he sell them at that price?" But Rosenfeld sells goods low, still at the same time makes a profit. Rosenfeld on the Bridge.

Very Fun.

It seems funny that the boys all want a double breasted reaser jacket instead of a long overcoat but when you stop to think of the comfort they have with one isn't so funny and the line we are showing this week fixes it so that every boy in town can have one at a very small cost because we bought a full line of samples. Frank H. Baack.

Figures Wont Lie.

Let the figures on our goods tell what we are doing in the way of busting the bubble of inflated prices. If our prices say anything they say that it is possible to get a good article at a low figure. Here is what we want you to remember. Our figures talk and figures wont lie. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Take Life Easy

If you can, and do the best you can at it. You must wear good underwear in cold weather, and you can't get it at cheap sales, but you can get it at Frank H. Baack's if you call for the Staley Manufacturing Co's, goods, that are as clean inside as a chamolix skin.

FARMER'S SCHOOL TO BE HELD HERE JANESVILLE GETS ONE OF THE INSTITUTES.

A Cooking School is to be Run in Connection With It Janesville Being One of the Ten Towns Favored With That New Feature—March 3 and 4 the Dates.

Janesville will get a farmers' institute and a cooking school on March 3 and 4, 1896. The latter feature is a new one in the institute work this season and they will be held in ten towns, conducted by Mrs. Jennie G. Jamison of Neenah. These ten towns are Merrill, Tomah, Moudovi, Eau Claire, Viroqua, Elroy, Beaver Dam, Appleton, Janesville and Columbia. The following are the conductors and the assistants of the institutes for this year, the first named being the conductor and the second his assistant: J. M. True, Baraboo; H. C. Taylor, Orfordville; Thomas Convey, Ridgeport; B. J. Coe, Fort Atkinson; C. H. Everett, Beloit; George C. Hill, Rosendale; A. F. Noyes, Beaver Dam; W. C. Bradley, Hudson; H. A. Briggs, Elkhorn; Charles Thorp, Burnett.

Over one hundred institutes have been arranged for by George McKersrow, superintendent of agricultural institutes. The opening one will be held at Ahnapee, December 3 and 4, and the "round up" at Watertown, March 19, 11 and 12. Janesville institutes will be conducted by A. F. Noyes and the cooking school will be in connection with it. Clinton also gets an institute on February 18 and 19 with John M. True as conductor.

THE NEWS OF JOHNSTOWN CENTER

Farmers Should Not Mourn Because Potatoes Are Cheap—Other Items.

Johnstown Center, Oct. 29.—Farmers should not mourn over a surplus of potatoes this year. Even though they are nearly valueless in the market they are worth just as much to eat as they brought a dollar a bushel. They make the best of food for hogs and cattle if properly treated and will be a great saving in tiding over the winter, while they command a big price. Steam or boil them adding a little bran or meal while hot and you will be surprised to see how greedily stock will devour them and how well they will thrive on it. It takes a little trouble but it will pay. The high winds and dry weather of the past few days have put a stop to husking shock corn.

The new directory of Johnstown Center will read as follows: T. D. Hall, general merchandise and postmaster, Jas. McGowan Jr., meat market, G. D. Hall creamery and grinding, M. H. Morse agent Page wire fence, Wm. Bell blacksmith, Dr. Rockwell, physician and surgeon, C. W. Forest carpenter and joiner, Chas. Stoller carpenter and joiner, Jas. Daly, drayman, J. D. Spickerman paper hanger and painter, Rueben Austin mayor, B. J. Kehoe hotel, Jas. McGowan Sr. shoemaker, Miss Maggie Morvon, dressmaker, Julia White and Sarah M. Whitney dressmakers, Mrs. Dr. Rockwell music teacher, Mark Sexton has returned Turtle Lake.

The Misses Brotherton of Milton visited old schoolmates here last Saturday. Wallace Lamb has a flock of Dorset Horned sheep that are worth going to see. Judy Walker has returned from Iowa. Mrs. F. D. Hall entertained a number of ladies at a tea party Thursday afternoon. The Blue Jay social at Ed. Austin's was well attended and all spent an enjoyable evening. Mr. Dwight, who lived on the farm now owned by Lewis Rye, twenty years ago, is visiting old acquaintances. Will Reddy, who lived in Johnstown twenty-five years ago, was renewing old acquaintances last week. Dr. and Mrs. Rockwell spent a portion of last week with Jefferson county friends. Mr. and Mrs. Pett, of Palmyra, are visiting Mrs. Pett's sister, Mrs. E. M. Austin. The opening party of the Johnson house on Wednesday evening was attended by nearly eighty couples, and Landlord Kehoe was consequently happy. Mr. J. D. Spickerman and son Elmer spent Sunday with Mrs. Spickerman's parents in Delavan. Bart Fanning is moving on the farm which he recently purchased near Janesville. John Powell has rented his old farm for next season. Will Millard, of this place, and a young lady from Harmony, were married at the Methodist parsonage at Richmond Sunday, October 20, 1895. Fred Church, who recently moved from Johnstown to Milton Junction, dined at Hotel Kehoe Saturday. Fred is in the live stock business.

WILL ACT.

Meeting is Called For Tomorrow Evening When A. S. Maxham, the Originator of the Idea Will Explain it Fully.—Mrs. Campbell, the State President Endorses the Idea.

The plan to make the old Willard homestead the "rest home" for members of the W. C. T. U. who are aged or infirm, will be fully explained to Janesville business men tomorrow evening. The scheme will be outlined by its originator, A. S. Maxham, of Rockford. It will undoubtedly be of great benefit to the city, and should be furthered by the people. The plan is cordially endorsed by the workers in the organization as is shown by the following letter written by Mrs. V. H. Campbell of Evansville, president of the Wisconsin W. C. T. U. She says:

BELOVED CO-WORKERS:—I have been conversant with the plan originated by our brother, Mr. A. S. Maxham, for the purpose of giving to the white ribbon host the home of our beloved leader, Frances E. Willard; the home of her girlhood days; the home that is rich in associations, Willard Heights. I have known all about it from its inception, and have been glad to do what little I could do, by giving it my cordial endorsement and approval. I am sure all of you will feel like making an effort to carry this plan, which came like an inspiration to Brother Maxham, forward to its completion, because if it had not been for him, the beautiful home would have passed into speculative hands and would have been lost to us forever. Lovingly,
V. H. CAMPBELL,
President Wisconsin W. C. T. U.

The plan is to purchase the farm, reserve fifty acres for the home and to divide the remaining one hundred and eighty-nine acres into about seven hundred and twenty-five residence lots, fifty by one hundred and fifty feet, with sixty-six foot streets and sixteen foot alleys. These lots will be disposed of to individual purchasers at prices ranging from $150. to $375. and deeded only under strictly prohibition agreement and covenant. When two hundred of these lots have been sold the reserved fifty acres will be deeded to the W. C. T. U.

WISCONSIN Lodge No. 14 I. O. C. F.

To Steady the Nerves

Is a task to the accomplishment of which narcotics and sedatives are inadequate. The effect they produce is paralytic. They destroy sensation without benefit to the nerve. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the contrary, strengthens and soothes the nervous system. Overwork and mental anxiety weaken and relax it, and there is no more reliable means of bracing it and restoring nerve quietude, than by reinforcing digestion and promoting assimilation of the food. Two effects always consequent upon the use of the great stomachic. Failing strength is recuperated, a regular habit of blood restored, and appetite improved by the bitters. Disease must be regarded as an exceptionally remote possibility by anyone whose system has been thus reinforced. Malarial disease, constipation, dyspepsia, rheumatism and kidney troubles are overcome by and prevented by this standard medicine, which has no peer among American tonics, and is constantly increasing demand in Mexico, the West Indies and South Indies.

Covering a Graver Crime.

Mrs. Outertown—That Mr. Subbubs shows more consideration for his neighbors than any man I ever saw.

Mr. Outertown (astounded)—Consideration! Good heavens! Do you call it consideration to wheel a lawn mower up and down his grass plot every morning at six o'clock?

Mrs. Outertown—Yes; but he does it so the neighbors will not hear his daughter practicing her singing lessons.—Puck.

When a baby comes to the house real happiness comes. The care and anxiety count for nothing against the clinging touch of the little hands and the sound of the little voice. The highest function given to human beings is bringing healthy, happy children into the world. Over thirty years ago the needs of women appealed to Dr. Pierce, now chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. The result of his study improved by thirty years of practice is embodied in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It strengthens, purifies and makes healthy the organs distinctly feminine. It gives weak women the strength and health necessary for the production of healthy children and it makes the bearing of those children easy. It is sure to cure any weakness or derangement peculiar to women; stops pain, soothes inflammation, strengthens, purifies, invigorates.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1735—John Adams, second president of the United States, born; died 1826.
1759—Earthquake in Syria; Baalbec destroyed and 20,000 lives lost.
1823—Edmund Cartwright, inventor of the power loom, died.
1800—Admiral Thomas Cochrane, earl of Dundonald, a dashing naval commander who saw service with the British, Chilean and Brazilian fleets, died; born 1775.
1867—Governor John A. Andrew of Massachusetts, known as the "war governor," died in Boston; born 1818.
1881—General Truman Seymour, a veteran of the Mexican and civil wars, died in Florence.
1893—Sir John Abbott, ex-premier of Canada, died at Montreal; born 1821. The World's fair declared officially at an end.

THE FIGHT IN NEW YORK.

The most interesting of all the elections this fall is the one in New York. The dissatisfaction of the bibulous multitude of the New York city and their purveyors with the rigid enforcement of the excise law by the intrepid president of the police commission has opened to the routed forces of Tammany an opportunity to reform their disorganized squadrons and to enter the campaign with a prospect of recovering at least the outworks of the citadel they were compelled to surrender last fall.

With David B. Hill as their spokesman, they are arraiging the republican party for honestly enforcing, without fear or favor, a law which was enacted by the democratic party and used by Tammany only as a club to compel reluctant saloon keepers to obey their bidding and train in their ranks.

The republicans have an easy enough task in disposing of the arguments of the Tammany leaders; although it is not clear that it will be so easy to neutralize their effect upon that great mass of voters who have been so long habituated to a wide open policy that they have come to regard it as a matter of personal liberty, and its abuses as a cheap price for the privilege of violating the law with impunity.

CONSCIENCE AND COMMON SENSE

Some of the would be reformers should ponder over Theodore Roosevelt's declarations that "when conscientious men act in a silly manner they may become quite as noxious as the basest foe of good government. Common sense without conscience will at all times breed criminality; but conscience without common sense may also at times breed a folly that is but the handmaid of criminality." Half the obstacles in the path of improvement are put there by men whose intentions are of the best.

TOO MUCH DELAY.

There is no justice in delaying the World's Fair awards. Foreigners who received honors are still waiting for their diplomas, with no prospect of receiving them until most of the value is gone. This is not the treatment which these invited guests expected and had the right to expect. If American exhibitors at some European exhibition were accorded similar treatment the complaints would no doubt be long and loud and they would be backed by the general indignation of the whole people.

Since Rev. Myron Reed left Milwaukee and went to Denver he has absorbed wild western notions. He wants men shot down at the polls for fraudulent voting and doubtless thinks well of hemp neckties for horse thieves.

It is being brought home to many this week that Janesville has one of the finest Y. M. C. A. buildings in the state and that $1,600 would set it running.

Emily Bancker

Bright, witty, jolly "Emily Bancker" and her jovial companions in bilarity, comprising the "Our Flat" Company, will start the ball rolling at the Myers Grand Saturday evening. Miss Bancker comes heralded to us in the highest terms as to her ability, beauty and intelligence, and has surrounded herself with a galaxy of beautiful girls, and clever comedians who not only can act, but sing and dance as well.

"Our Flat" is a musical farce comedy, bristling with fine points, witty dialogue, funny situations, and is costumed in the richest and very latest style. The magnificent gowns worn throughout the play by the "star" are revelations of the fine art of the modern modiste, and will be an object of interest to the ladies who attend.

Two Men Electrocut.

Dannemora, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Yesterday, for the second time in the history of this state two murderers paid the penalty of their crimes on the same day and before the same set of witnesses. George H. Davis met his death two minutes later at 11:39.

THE SHIRT MY FATHER WORE.

[From the Chronicle.]

My father bought an undershirt of bright and flaming red. "All-wool," I'm ready to assert, "Fleece dyed," the merchant said. "Your size is thirty-eight, I think, and forty you should get, I think. Since all wool goods are bound to shrink a trifle when they're wet."

That shirt two weeks my father wore—Two washings, that was all—From forty down to thirty-four. It shrank like cat in tail. I wore it then a day or two, but when 'twas washed again my wife said: "Now 'twill only do for little brother Ben."

A fortnight Ben squeezed into it. At last he said it hurt. We put it on our babe the fit was good as any shirt. We never will wash it more while yet. We see its flickering light. For it again that shirt is wet. 'Twill vanish from our sight.

We are agents for the JAROS. Cannot shrink. Fits like a glove. You can get along without an overcoat. You can keep cool without Jaros Hygienic Underwear, but it isn't so easy.

300 BAD SIDEWALKS NOW ON THE LIST

STREET COMMISSIONER WALSON'S INSPECTORS REPORT.

Wonder That Damage Suits Are Not Begun Every Day—Bad City Ordinance Prevents Prompt Measures and the Commissioner Has All Kinds of Trouble in Consequence.

Janesville has been sued a few times in the past few years, but an inspection of the city sidewalks would justify the belief that a suit could be started about every fifteen minutes, if the pedestrians were looking for a place to take a fall.

A rather bad ordinance hinders the council and the aldermen cannot take the prompt measures that they favor, in consequence. They told Commissioner Watson to do the best he could, however, and when the commissioner does that it means a good deal. A rigid inspection of all the walks was ordered and it has been made. Commissioner Watson named A. Anderson, J. Hagany and Jere Murphy as the official assistant inspectors, and they and the commissioner devoted three days to the work. They did it, and what they found will be told in the report that the commissioner will submit to the city.

Three Hundred Walks Are Bad. "About three hundred walks were found to be in bad condition," said the commissioner; "that number need the city's immediate attention. We had all kinds of trouble with the investigation," he continued. "When we remind one man of the condition of his walk, he at once gets mad, and refers us to his neighbor's walk, which, the chances are, hasn't a whole board in it, and there we are. The rule at present is if the cost is not over $5, twenty-four hours notice to fix the walk is sufficient, but where the work exceeds $5, twenty days notice is given and as the majority of sidewalks in the city are under the latter class I think cold weather will hinder the repair work for the fall."

However, the commissioner will push the work as rapidly as possible, and all who fail to comply with the law will be made to "settle."

WORK FOR THE Y. M. C. A. CAUSE

Ladies Are Canvassing the Fourth Ward Today—Parade Tonight.

A canvass of the Fourth ward is being made today in behalf of the Y. M. C. A. by the following ladies: Mesdames F. S. Eldred, C. D. Child, David Jeffries, Edward Ruger, L. B. Reynolds, C. L. Clark, Eliza F. Burpee, Elizabeth W. Capelle, C. T. Wright, J. B. Hyzer, F. M. Marzuff and Miss Margaret Sheldou.

Four hundred people visited the building yesterday, and it will be open tonight. The parade will start from the building at 7 o'clock, and all men are earnestly requested to help make a showing. The Y. M. C. A. band will head the procession.

CLARENCE BURDICK DOES WELL

Janesville Actor Now With the Hopkins Stock Company at Kansas City

Clarence Burdick, or Earl Doty, as he is known on the stage, is now playing "leads" in the Hopkins Stock Company of Kansas City. The Kansas City Journal has the following: "A good bill drew large audiences yesterday at the Gillies, where the continuous show idea is gaining popularity. The Stock Company, which has been strengthened by several new people, gave 'The Streets of New York.' The play was well presented, Mr. Doty as 'Badger' being called before the curtain and heartily endorsed."

GOOD underwear, all week; good enough for anybody to wear. The usual price is 50 cents for shirt or drawers, all over the world. You can have them as long as they last for 17 1/2 cents, shirt or drawers, at Rosenfeld's on the Bridge.

TRIMMED hats can be bought of us for less than you can buy the material. The Fair.

A Gun Bargain.

One Remington hammerless 10 gauge shot gun, fine damascus barrel checked butt. It was sent to us by mistake and we will let it go at wholesale cost. Lowell Hardware Co.

CHEESBORO PAYS UP AND THE CASE ENDS

FAIRFIELD NEIGHBORS DIFFICULTY IS SETTLED.

Derendant Pleads Guilty to the Charge of Assault and Battery and is Fined $50—Paid the Complaining Witnesses Expenses Too—Clarence Dresser in Jail at Madison.

It cost E. J. Chesebro of Fairfield, a round sum to down John B. Munroe some days ago. Munroe, it will be remembered, at once made a complaint charging Chesebro with assault with intent to do great bodily harm, and Chesebro was arrested. The case came before Judge Phelps in the municipal court this morning, and on the motion of District Attorney Jackson, the case against Chesebro was dismissed and the defendant discharged by paying the costs.

He was then re-arrested on the charge of assault and battery, and on his plea of guilty, was fined $50 and costs, amounting in all $53.65 which he also paid. In addition to this Chesebro is said to have paid Monroe, $100, and all his doctor's bills and other expenses. District Attorney Jackson appeared for the state and Winans & Russell for the defendant.

Clarence W. Dresser in Jail.

Clarence W. Dresser, formerly of this city, is now in the Madison jail for five months. He and Mary Ring, aged fifteen, were charged with living together as man and wife without going through the formality of a marriage ceremony.

Miss Ring is the daughter of John Ring, a saloon keeper at Spring Green. She has been working for a family near Spring Green. Dresser went to Spring Green about three weeks ago. The girl became infatuated with him and they eloped. The father followed them to Madison. He called on the police for assistance in his search and Chief Heyl and Officer Boyd found and arrested the pair. Both pleaded guilty, and Dresser got a five months' sentence, while the girl was sent to the industrial school.

Dresser used to live here, but left with his mother, upon the advice of the police, some time ago.

THE CHICAGO MARKETS BY WIRE

Prices of Grain and Provisions On the Board of Trade Today.

The following table shows the range of prices of grain and provisions on the Chicago market today, the figures being furnished The Gazette by James H. McDonald & Company, commission merchants, in the William block, on the Corn exchange.

STOOD AT CUPID'S SHRINE.

Cantillon-Stimm.

Richard H. Cantillon and Miss Ida Stimm were married at St. Mary's church at 8 o'clock this morning. Rev. E. J. Roche officiating. Miss Catherine Cantillon acted as bridesmaid while Mr. E. Norton was best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cantillon were driven to the home of the groom's parents where a wedding breakfast was served. This evening a reception will be given them at the home of the bride 217 North Franklin street. The bride wore a dark blue travelling suit and looked charming. Both she and her husband are well known in Janesville; and many friends will wish them much joy.

ANSWERED THE CALL OF DEATH

Mrs. C. C. Ryan

Mrs. C. C. Ryan, who has been a long and patient sufferer with consumption, died at 11:30 this morning at her home 301 South Franklin street. Mrs. Ryan has been sick for the past year and besides a husband leaves two little children. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

A Fur Cape For $6.00.

One of the best bargains for ladies we have yet offered is that fur cape at $6.00. It's well made, nicely trimmed and is selling well. Lowell's Annex.

Underwear.

More underwear is being sold by T. P. Burns than any other dealer in the city. He carries a very complete line of the best makes at very low prices.

Our Line

Of second hand stoves is very complete. For people who do not wish to expend much money for heaters we can capture. Lowell Hardware Co.

Second Hand

We have one Gold Coin and one splendid second hand stove with ovens, for sale very cheap. Lowell Hardware Co.

Brass Tables.

We received yesterday a line of brass tables, warranted not to tarnish with onyx top. We ask from $4.50 to $6.00 for them. Remarkable low price you will say. Lowell's Annex.

New toys of every description. The Fair.

WHEAT AND CLOVER.

On one side slept the clover,
On one side sprang the wheat,
And I, like a lazy lover,
Knew not which seemed more sweet—
The red caps of the clover
Or the green gowns of the wheat.

The red caps of the clover,
They nodded in the heat,
And as the wind went over
With nimble, flying feet
It tossed the caps of clover
And stirred the gowns of wheat.

O rare red caps of clover!
O dainty gowns of wheat!
You teach a lazy lover
How in his lady meet
The sweetness of the clover,
The promise of the wheat.

—London Spectator.

THE BOWERIE GHOST.

More than two centuries ago, when old Petrus Stuyvesant and his silver banded wooden leg ruled the destinies of New Amsterdam, there was a well known place of refreshment in that colonial town known by the worthy burghers as the Wursthans. It stood upon the east side of the Old Post or Bowerie road, not far from the present point of junction with Division street.

The then suburban location of the Wursthans made it and its jovial host—Hans von Schneist—well known and patronized by the townsmen and their families.

But a change came o'er the smiling features and jocund laugh of the host of the Wursthans when his only son was proclaimed an outlaw. Some boyish indiscretion of speech had been magnified by the hearers, and coming to the ears of the suspicious old director general had resulted in the decree. Young Hans had received timely warning, however, and was supposed to have reached the Swedish colony in safety.

Several months passed away, and one evening young Jacob Twiller related the following weird adventure to the wondering crowd gathered around the central table in the Wursthans garden:

"I was eel spearing in the Freshwater pond last evening, and by the time the moon was overhead had filled my creel. I started to walk home. I had but passed the Wursthans when just ahead of me I spied a tall figure wrapped in a long gray cloak. Thinking that no one except the watch could be abroad at that hour of the night, except with some evil purpose in view, I suited my pace to his, meaning to let him precede me toward the city wall. But scarce had we progressed in this manner for a few hundred yards or so when the figure turned, and holding its arms aloft made menacing gestures as if forbidding me to approach.

"Overburdened with my fishing traps I felt powerless, and so knelt on the ground so as to more easily remove the strap of the creel from off my shoulders. But as I knelt the ghost—for such it surely was—had vanished from sight, and though I hunted well about I could find no trace except maybe a smoke, smelling strongly of sulphur, which I breathed in my nostrils as I came near to that part of the ground from which he had vanished."

Nothing could shake the valiant Jacob's circumstantial details of the encounter, and though the town cynic sneered, the group gathered closer together around the central table and made haste home in good season.

Within a week Roelof Jans, the popular butt and scapegrace, added still more to the mysterious tale of his predecessor. While agreeing with Jacob in the general appearance of the gray cloaked figure, he furnished additional details by which it would seem that a long barbed tail was a feature in the phantom and that it walked amid belching clouds of smoke.

And then came the climax. Adam Roelandsen stated to the captain of the watch that he had encountered the gray cloaked phantom; that it came out from the Wursthans, but hastily turned and re-entered the door ere he could summon up courage to advance or retreat.

Here was a pretty condition of affairs! The habitues of old Hans Von Schneist's place quaked in their very shoes at the bare supposition that they had been drinking the brewings of one who was seemingly in league with the evil one.

And so it came to pass that the stout old captain of the watch, at the head of his little squad, came to investigate the Wursthans. For some reason old Hans did not come to the door, and when the captain of the watch entered the big taproom he found mine host tightening the hoops of an enormous butt that stood in the darkest corner. The crowd of sightseers, at first fearful of forked tongues of flame and other chronicled attributes of the evil one, were timorous of entering the house. But gathering courage from the assembled military, and particularly impressed by the gallant bearing of the commandant, they gradually inched forward, until very soon almost every available space was occupied.

"Good morning, Herr Von Schneist!" spoke the captain.

"Good morning to you, herr captain, and to you, soldiers and fellow citizens!" answered the sturdy old tavern keeper. "What means this array? Am I accused of treason, or are you merely come to test the malt in my brewing?"

"It is neither of false brewing nor of treason you are accused, Herr Von Schneist, nor yet of anything coming within the civil or military law. Some there be who say that you are in league with the evil one. Step forward, Adam Roelandsen, and tell your tale again, so that this worthy man will know our business."

Then came shambling forward the pedagogue, who, with many pauses and apologetic utterances, spoke as follows: "You have all heard, and some few have seen, the gray cloaked figure that walks the Bowerie road at night time. Some there are who say it hath a tail like unto the evil one, and divers others aver that it is surrounded by clouds of rolling brimstone smoke. I spent last evening with John Verleucht up at his gristmill the other side of Corlears Hook, teaching and explaining to him the new method of multiplication. We had scarce half a score mugs of ale and my head was clear as a bell when I saw a gray cloaked figure hastily enter the door of the Wursthans."

"You will agree, Herr von Schneist, that it is my bounden duty to search your premises?" quoth the captain.

"Assuredly, herr captain," he replied, "but before you begin I will serve you and your men with some of my new ale." Without giving them time to answer he hustled toward the big butt in the dark corner and straightway dispensed a generous measure of the beverage to them. Not having such high opinions of the power of his satanic majesty as the citizens, they quaffed it down, but pronounced it stale and flat.

Then began a scene of turmoil and confusion, enough to make the vrow's heart break with anguish. But though the iron bound linen chest was turned upside down and emptied of its contents in an unseemly manner, and though closets were upturned, beds overthrown and the whole house pulled out at corners, she never murmured or complained.

But nothing was found, and though the taproom was lightly passed over there was no place in it that a man could hide—except possibly the big butt in the dark corner. That, however, was full of ale—for had they not drank some of it?

And so the watch marched away empty handed, and left to the host and his vrow the task of putting things to rights.

The gray cloaked demon was seen several times thereafter, but no concerted attempt was made to follow it up. About two months from the time of the fruitless search the few faithful adherents of the Wursthans noted that both Hans and his wife were very grave faces. In a few days they announced that a young traveler from Boston was dangerously ill in the darkened bedroom up stairs, and the Dutch physician—who had but just arrived from Holland—was sent for. He came again and again, and the faces of the worthy couple showed a deep sympathy for the youthful guest. Finally the doctor came in the middle of the night and staid till morning, but the soul of his patient fled before the dawn.

Heavy grief o'erhung the Schneist household, and the Wursthans was closed till after the funeral. Even then old Hans showed a settled grief in his altered demeanor.

Observant neighbors noted that the big butt in the corner was never used after the soldiers drank from it, and when a few months had sped, and comparisons came to be made, it was found that the gray cloaked phantom had never been seen since the young stranger was taken sick. It was also commented upon that no one came from Boston to inquire about him. But there was a many who believed till their dying day that it was a genuine ghost that had been seen by Jacob Twiller et al., gliding along the old Bowerie road.—Pierce W. Hart in New York Advertiser.

Duplicate Names in Congress.

The fifty-fourth congress will contain a considerable number of members of duplicate names. There are two members by the name of Arnold, one from Pennsylvania and one from Rhode Island; three Bakers, from Kansas, Maryland and New Hampshire; two Bartletts, from Georgia and Texas; two Blacks, from Georgia and New York; two Burtons, from Maryland and Ohio; three Clarks, from Alabama, Iowa and Missouri; two Cannons, from Illinois and Utah; two Cooks, from Illinois and Wisconsin; three Coopers, from Florida, Texas and Wisconsin; three Curtises, from Iowa, Kansas and New York; two Cobbs, from Alabama and Missouri; Gillett from Massachusetts and Gillet from New York; two Henrys, from Connecticut and Indiana; two Johnsons, from Indiana and North Dakota; two Millers, from Kansas and West Virginia; two Murphys, from Illinois and Arizona; two McCalls, from Massachusetts and Tennessee; Miner from New York and Minor from Wisconsin bear the same name, with the distinction of one letter; two members bear the name of Russell, one from Connecticut and the other from Georgia. There are two Smiths, one from Illinois and one from Michigan; two Stones, both from Pennsylvania; two Turners, from Georgia and Virginia, and two Walkers, from Massachusetts and Virginia. Then we have more men bearing the name of Wilson than any other—four in all—from Idaho, New York, Ohio and South Carolina.—Washington Post.

Condemned.

"Here is a cigar," said the dealer, "that I would like you to give a trial."

"All right," said Watts. "Hand it over."

It was handed over.

"What do you think of it?" asked the dealer.

"It doesn't deserve a trial," said Watts. "It ought to be lynched."—Indianapolis Journal.

NO SECRET

IN THIS WOMAN'S CASE.

Mrs. Campbell Wishes Her Letter Published so that the Truth May Be Known.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Of the thousands of letters received from women all over the world by Mrs. Pinkham, not one is given to the public unless by the wish of the writer. Thus absolute confidence is established between Mrs. Pinkham and her army of patients; and she freely solicits a letter from any woman, rich or poor, who is in ill health or ailing.

In the case of Mary E. Campbell, of Albion, Noble Co., Ind., her suffering was so severe, her relief so suddenly realized, and her gratitude so great, that she wishes the circumstances published, in the hope that others may be benefited thereby. She says:—

"My physician told me I had dropsy and falling of the womb. My stomach and bowels were so bloated I could not get a full breath. My face and hands were bloated badly. I had that dreadful bearing-down pain, backache, palpitation of the heart, and nervousness."

"One of my physicians told me I had something growing in my stomach; and the medicine that I took gave me relief only for a short time. I thought I must die. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it worked like a charm. After taking the first bottle I could walk across the street, now I am well. I advise all my friends to take it."
